

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

Subscription $1 Per Year, in Advance.

"Come, the Herald of a Noisy World, the News of All Nations Lumbering at My Back."

All Kinds Job Printing Neatly Executed.

37th YEAR.

HARTFORD, KY., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1911.

NO. 44

BIG REPUBLICAN RALLY NOT MUCH

Comparatively Few of the Faithful Present.

ED P. MORROW ORATOR OF DAY

Made a Typical Republican Speech, All for Glory of One Party.

DIDN'T EXPLAIN SOME THINGS

The much heralded speaking of Hon. Ed P. Morrow in behalf of the Republican State ticket took place at Hartford Saturday afternoon. The country had been drummed far and wide for attendance and it was intimated that fully as many people were expected as attended the big Democratic rally here recently. However, there were only two or three hundred more people in town than the regular Saturday crowd in Hartford. If the Republicans really expected as many people as attended the Democratic affair, they missed it by nearly four thousand. The court house was comfortably full, and that was all. A careful estimate of the crowd put it at perhaps few more than four hundred—not approximating five hundred at the furthest stretch of the imagination. Fully a fourth of the crowd—perhaps a third—were negroes. There were a dozen or so ladies present, but several white women went to the door and seeing the large sprinkling of negroes, declined to enter.

The Taylor Mines negro band made music for the occasion, rendering "Dixie" and other popular airs. The speaker of the day was introduced by Mr. E. M. Woodson in a few appropriate remarks. Mr. Morrow is the biggest gun the Republicans have in their battery of orators. He is a fluent talker and a much better orator and speaker than Judge E. C. O'Rear. He made a typical Republican speech, denouncing the Democrats from all quarters of the compass and praising the Republican party as embracing all that is great and grand and glorious. He said he had been told that at the recent big Democratic rally here, all the speakers talked about was the tariff. Everybody who attended the Democratic rally knows that this is not true. Facts, the Democratic speakers talked too much about State issues to suit the Republicans. Mr. Morrow berated the lobby at Frankfort in fierce terms, but did not explain the doings of this very lobby in the election of W. O. Bradley to the Senatorship. The Constitution, said Mr. Morrow, forbids that State officials shall ride on railroad passes, but it was not explained why Judge O'Rear's family ride on passes. Our system of taxation was denounced by the speaker, but no reference was made to Gov. Wilson's partisan State Board of Equalization, which has taken the matter in hand and raised the taxpayers of the State an extortionate amount in order to defray the extravagant expenses of a Republican administration. He said, which is true, that nearly every law upon our statute books was placed there by Democrats, but he gave us no credit for anything that is good. He simply proceeded to saddle all the evils of the earth upon the Democrats.

In florid and eloquent language Mr. Morrow described the Republican candidate for Governor—Judge O'Rear—saying "at last, at last," comes the great and only champion of the people's rights, intimating that no such great Kentuckian had ever lived in any or either party. Mr. Morrow said the liquor and beer trusts are fighting Judge O'Rear for all they are worth. This is evident from the fact that Judge O'Rear's State ticket was nominated in a room over a beer garden, a beer stave manufacturer was chosen as one of his campaign managers, and the most prominent wholesale liquor manufacturer in the State (John McCulloch) took the matter of collecting funds for Judge O'Rear's campaign in hand. This is the way the liquor and beer trust is fighting Judge O'Rear.

Kentucky has been in the hands of a band of thieves, said Mr. Morrow, which of course we take it to mean that part of the State's administration in past years which has been in the hands of Democrats. Of course everything the Republican officials have ever done was the height of honesty and correctness, according to Mr. Morrow. The Cleveland Presidential administration was recalled by Mr. Morrow in scathing and bitter terms, and he described the woes and panic which accompanied or followed it, with gestures that almost fractured the atmosphere. The Roosevelt panic of four years ago, however, when depositors could not get their own money out of banks, was not mentioned. In fact, Mr. Morrow recounted nothing whatever that would be calculated to reflect upon any Republican administration anywhere.

Mr. Morrow closed his two-hour address with a tearful and eloquent appeal to the negroes present to support the Republican ticket. He adjured them to be faithful and prompt in voting, and conjured up a fine picture of Abraham Lincoln, "who set them free" and whose party is "the same Republican party of to-day." For some unaccountable reason, the Republican leaders seem to be afraid this year that they will not be able to hold the negro vote in line, and they are making strenuous efforts to get the colored brother to stick to them. It is well known, however, that only at election times does the colored man get any special attention from the Republican bosses.

A noticeable feature of the speaking was the constant getting up and going out of old-line Republicans, who seemed to have had enough of something for the day. The last words of Mr. Morrow were followed by a cheer from the colored band concealed at one side of the room and the crowd soon dispersed.

AN APPEAL TO EVERY VOTER OF OHIO COUNTY

For a Square Deal and a Clean Ballot at the Coming Election.

Hartford, Ky., Oct. 26, 1911. As chairman of the Campaign Committees of the Republican and Democratic parties of Ohio county, we agree not to use or cause to be used in the approaching election any intoxicating liquors in any way, or for any purpose. We further agree not to use, countenance or encourage, but endeavor to prevent the use of money, or other things of value, for the purpose of bribing voters to cast their ballots in any particular way, or to cast them at all, or not to cast them, or to induce them to attend the election for the purpose of voting, and will not offer, encourage or countenance the promises of position, money, or other things to influence voters in any of the above ways, and not to intimidate, or cause to be intimidated, or threatened, any voter in order to secure his vote, or to get him to attend or remain away from the election, but will endeavor to prevent all such practices. We further agree to report and make affidavit if necessary after the election that no money was sent into the county by the State Committee, or other members of our parties, to our knowledge, except that controlled by our respective committees; and that this agreement shall be published in The Hartford Herald, Nov. 1, 1911, and the Hartford Republican, Oct. 27, 1911.

G. B. LIKENS.

Ch'm'n. Democratic Cam. Com.

W. S. TINSLEY.

Ch'm'n. Republican Cam. Com.

COWBOY NOT BAFFLED BY HIS ONE FAILURE

Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 28.—Louis Mayes, the Wyoming cowboy, who had such a sensational episode two months ago eloping with Jessie Moore, but who was arrested at Hopkinsville and brought back here, was not to be baffled in his matrimonial aspirations, as he today led to the altar Lydia Jenkins, the sixteen-year-old daughter of a miner.

"I am pleased to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as the best thing I know of and safest remedy for coughs, colds and bronchial trouble," writes Mrs. L. B. Arnold, of Denver, Colo. "We have used it repeatedly and it has never failed to give relief." For sale by all dealers.

MR. McCULLOCH BACKS DOWN

Won't Say Whether He Contributed to

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN FUND

Urey Woodson Puts the Matter Squarely Up to Republican Leaders.

LANGLEY GETS A CHALLENGE

Hon. John W. Langley, member of Congress from the Tenth district of Kentucky and chairman of the Republican State Campaign Committee, in a communication to the press, last Saturday, replying to Chairman Vansant of the Democratic State Campaign Committee, on the subject of opening the campaign subscription books of both parties—a challenge Langley first made to Vansant—said:

"He refers to Mr. J. W. McCulloch, seeking to leave the inference that he has made a contribution to this committee. One of the reasons why I wanted the fact brought out in a way that could not be questioned was that Mr. McCulloch has never made any contribution whatever to this committee, either directly or indirectly."

A Challenge to Langley.

Seeing this, Mr. Woodson, editor of the Messenger, yesterday sent the following telegram to Chairman Langley:

"Hon. John W. Langley, Chairman Republican State Campaign Committee, Louisville, Ky.: You said in your statement, Saturday night, replying to Chairman Vansant, and referring to J. W. McCulloch, president of the Kentucky Distillers' Association, who, upon your motion, in the presence of Judge O'Rear, at Paducah, August 27, was made chairman of the Republican finance committee, that Mr. McCulloch has never made any contribution whatever to this committee, either directly or indirectly. I charge that Mr. McCulloch has made a very large contribution to the Republican campaign fund and I challenge you to get Mr. McCulloch to join you in denying it."

"UREY WOODSON."

Following this, Mr. Woodson wired to the Louisville correspondent of the Messenger, as follows:

"See Langley and get his reply to my telegram of this date; also see John W. McCulloch, of Owensboro, who is, I understand, at the Seelbach, show him the telegram and wire the Messenger any statement he may make about this matter, together with Langley's statement."

Barnett Replies.

After midnight the following telegram from C. M. Barnett was received:

"Urey Woodson, Owensboro, Ky.: Your telegram directed to Chinlawn Langley has been received by me. Mr. Langley is on the O'Rear special train, in the eastern section of Kentucky. I have no personal knowledge of Mr. McCulloch's whereabouts, but he lives in your town. Your telegram to Mr. Langley will be submitted to him immediately upon his return. If you publish your telegram, or make any public reference to it, I trust you will be fair enough to publish this in connection therewith."

"C. M. BARNETT,
"Vice Chairman State Campaign Committee."

Mr. Barnett was told by the Messenger's Louisville correspondent, before he sent the above telegram, that Mr. McCulloch was then at the Seelbach, in Louisville, but Barnett was not looking for McCulloch.

Whit McCulloch Says.

The Messenger's correspondent at Louisville also wired as follows: "I couldn't see Mr. McCulloch until after he returned from the theater. I showed him a copy of your telegram to Langley. He read it carefully and then said:

"I decline absolutely to make a statement one way or the other. If I did make a contribution, I did what every freedom American citizen had the right to do."

"I couldn't induce him to say anything more."

A Palpable Admission.

Now, what do you think of that, gentle reader?

If Mr. McCulloch hadn't contributed, as Mr. Woodson charged, wouldn't he have flatly denied it?

Isn't his refusal to say a practical admission of the charge?

Didn't O'Rear and Langley select McCulloch as chairman of their finance committee at the famous Paducah meeting because they knew McCulloch was a liberal contributor and knew how to make others, especially those in his business, contribute?

How Many Others?

If Mr. McCulloch contributed—and, of course, he did, or he would deny it—what is Langley's denial worth?

How many others in his business has McCulloch also induced to contribute? And if they contributed, what has been promised them? It is a certain thing they wouldn't contribute if they didn't have certain promises.

How many different strings have O'Rear and Langley pulled in this campaign in their desperate desire to win?

Was duplicity ever so apparent in any election?

What bunglers this pretty pair have been shown to be!—[Owensboro Messenger, October 31.]

MOUNTAIN MINISTER

IS READY FOR WAR

Pineville, Ky., Oct. 27.—While holding the crowd at Barbourville for the Republican campaign special yesterday afternoon, Rev. John W. Stamper, a prominent Baptist minister and the present county judge of Knox county, in an address made this remark:

"I, for one, am ready to shoulder the musket and shoot them out like we did before."

FIRE AT SACRAMENTO

NEARLY DESTROYS TOWN

Conflagration Burns Nearly Three

Hours Before It is Finally Subdued.

Flames originating shortly after 10 o'clock Friday night threatened the little town of Sacramento, McLean county, with destruction, but were subdued after having destroyed four business houses and six stores, causing a loss of $4,000. The flames originated in the store room of the store of A. L. Bates.

The flames raged for nearly three hours before burning out, despite the forming of bucket brigades and the scores of volunteer fire fighters. Insurance was carried on but one store and one building, those of A. L. Bates. He carried $1,000 on his stock and $300 on his store house. The stores and buildings burned and the amount of losses and insurance carried were as follows:

General mercantile store of A. L. Bates, with stock valued at $1,500 and insurance, $1,000; and building valued at $600 with insurance of $300.

Undertaking establishment and cold drink stand of George W. Whitmer, with stock valued at $1,000, with no insurance and loss on building of $600, with no insurance.

Grocery store of Larry Neal with stock saved, and building destroyed, valued at $300, with no insurance.

Grocery and barbershop of N. S. Whitmer, with the stock saved, and building destroyed, valued at $600, with no insurance.

The Sacramento Hotel, owned by A. Ross, on the opposite side of the street, was damaged to the extent of $50.

The mercantile store of R. M. Kincheloe, on the opposite side of the street, was damaged to the extent of $25.

PEARLS OF GREAT VALUE FOUND IN OHIO RIVER

Madison, Ind., Oct. 30.—Three pearls have been found in the Ohio river, near Madison, in the last few days by men gathering mussel shells. One found Saturday by Joseph Potter weighs 39 1/2 grains and he values it at $700, though it is not quite perfect. Another pearl, slightly defective, weighing 17 grains, was sold for $75. The finest one, however, perfectly round and clear almost as crystal, weighing 20 grains, is valued at between $400 and $500.

Whit McCulloch Says.

The Messenger's correspondent at Louisville also wired as follows: "I couldn't see Mr. McCulloch until after he returned from the theater. I showed him a copy of your telegram to Langley. He read it carefully and then said:

"I decline absolutely to make a statement one way or the other. If I did make a contribution, I did what every freedom American citizen had the right to do."

"I couldn't induce him to say anything more."

A Palpable Admission.

Now, what do you think of that, gentle reader?

THE VOICE OF SOUTH TRIMBLE

Is the Title of an Alarming Circular

BEING PUT IN NEGRO HANDS

Infamous Trick of Republican Bosses to Frighten the Negro Voter.

"SCARE" METHODS BEING USED

In desperation at thought of losing the coming election and fearful of losing any part of the negro vote, the Republican bosses are resorting to every and any kind of a trick nowadays to gain a point. The latest device of this kind came to light in Hartford Saturday night. It is a big circular, 12x18 inches in size and printed in large type so it can be easily read. It is headed "The Voice of South Trimble is the Voice of Democracy." It purports to be an extract from a speech delivered by Mr. South Trimble at Pineville, Ky., but when and upon what occasion it does not say. In this big-type circular Mr. Trimble is quoted as saying among other things: "I must say that I have made a mistake in allowing them (the negroes) to go into the ark, so there would be one of the black scoundrels treading the face of the earth, and it is a great pity at the close of the war that life was not touched to every negro tent in the South," and other alleged sentiments of like tone.

It is evident from the very looks and origin of the circular that South Trimble never spoke any such a nonsense. The circular, however, proceeds to credit Mr. Trimble as being "the mouthpiece of Democracy in the State of Kentucky," and says: "They are all birds of a feather. Every Democratic Congressman—A. O. Stanley, Ollie James, Ben Johnson, and the others who are advocating the election of McCreary—voted and worked for South Trimble in order that he might have the power to put into execution his ghastly plans against the poor negro."

Just what these "plans" are is not specified, but the colored man is led to believe that Mr. Trimble will herd up all the negroes—men, women and children—and burn 'em alive, without any sort of ceremony. In this of course he will be assisted by the Democratic Congressmen and Gov. McCreary. So Mr. Negro had better vote the Republican ticket in order to escape. The circular winds up by saying: "Any colored man who can swallow Democracy after this mendacious expression, has an exceedingly strong stomach."

This alarming circular is signed "The Negro Civic League," but it was not circulated at the Republican speaking here Saturday nor in Hartford. There was a big negro gathering at Mayfield, our adjoining colored settlement, and there these circulars were turned loose. Accidentally one found its way into the hands of The Herald scribe. We understand there were two colored orators from Hopkinsville who held forth at Mayfield Saturday night and the negroes and a few whites had a great time. Of course all the negroes were cautioned and urged to vote the Republican ticket straight, in order to keep them and their families from being burned up alive by South Trimble and his gang of murderous Democrats.

Evidently the Republican bosses are afraid of losing the negro vote or they would not adopt such desperate plans to save it to themselves. This negro circular is a fair specimen of the plans they adopt to scare the negro into voting the Republican ticket. They wait until the eve of election day before springing a matter like this. We understand, however, that with all this "persuasion" and scare methods, many of the negroes are refusing to wear O'Rear buttons and say they will vote as they please.

FIRST WOMAN ELECTED TO MEDICAL SOCIETY

Paducah, Oct. 26.—The Kentucky State Medical Association adjourned to-day to meet next year in Louisville.

Dr. Della Caldwell, of Paducah, was elected First Vice President. This is the first time the organization has selected a woman to fill an office. The most interesting address to-day was that of Dr. Milton Board, of Louisville, on "The Care of the Insane Criminal." He said Kentucky was badly in need of a Matewawn for the criminal insane.

SENSATIONAL SUIT FILED AGAINST THE STEEL TRUST

The Government brought suit in the United States Court at Trenton, N. J., asking for the dissolution of the United States Steel Corporation and a number of its subsidiary companies. The petition was prepared by Jacob M. Dickinson, former Secretary of War, who has been retained by the Government as special counsel. It is alleged that former President Roosevelt was misled

THE USURPATION OF GREAT POWER

As Exemplified in Present Taxing Matter.

COMPARISON OF CONDITIONS

Which Have Caused War, With Present Highhanded Methods Employed.

MATTER SIZED UP JUST RIGHT

"Unless a miracle in human affairs shall interpose, no nation ever did or ever can retain its liberty after the loss of the sword and the purse."

Before the general election in this good year let us in all seriousness ask every tax-payer in Kentucky to carefully re-read, with all the dramatic incidents of its stormy passage, Patrick Henry's Fifth Resolution on the Stamp Act—the match that set ablaze the American Revolution.

Among all those lion-hearted patriots, every one a hero, none but Henry, then an uncouth, ungainly, contorted figure whose exterior invited ridicule and disrespect, appearing at this crisis as if sent by a destiny, had the matchless courage to hurl defiance in the face of his king. It was a time that tried men's souls as if by a fire. Robertson, Wythe, Bland, Pendleton and Burk sat blanched, congealed by his magnificent audacity, and Peyton Randolph, horrified by the impending consequences, cried out: "My God! I'd give 500 guineas for a single vote." The fainthearted gathered courage from the countenance of this polemic gladiator, the coward became hero when he gazed upon his exploits, one lash of whose scourge was infamy, and from whose eyes one glance of anger was almost death. It was when speaking to this resolution, he rose with its climax to his loftiest attitude, and with the look of a god and the voice of thunder, electrified mankind with that immortal oration, "Cesar had his Brutus—Charles the Second his Cromwell and George the Third"—&c.

Nothing in romance or fiction, it seems or story, is half so thrilling and intrinating as the story of those momentous days when the great mother of republics was in travail.

This resolution, which is far more than a mere incident of troublous times, far more than a chapter of tragedy, yes, far more, for it was an epoch, is so pertinent, so relevant to two political issues now presented to the public, I'm sure I shall be allowed to reproduce it here:

"Resolved, That the General Assembly of this colony has the SOLE RIGHT AND POWER to lay taxes on its inhabitants; and ANY ATTEMPT TO VEST SUCH POWER IN ANY OTHER PERSON OR PERSONS WHATSOEVER, has a manifest tendency to destroy British as well as American freedom."

The most powerful instrument of oppression, the greatest menace to the sacred right to the fruits of one's own toil, whether in the hand of a despot, aristocrat or the representative of a republic, is the Taxing Power, an instrument with which the tyrant always seeks to arm himself.

It was only with a tenacious hold upon the public purse-string that the English parliament could restrain and bring to his knees a Tudor, Plantagenet or Stuart in renunciation of his divine right to oppress, but whenever they relaxed that hold the despot, with the same weapon, just as surely drove his subjects into slavery. Almost every page of English history teems with striking examples, and the blood its safeguards has cost our race is appalling.

That the colonies should bear a just measure of the cost of defense against a common enemy, they neither denied nor sought to evade. The demands of their king were not enjoin in themselves; for the cost of defending these distant colonies against both France and Spain was bankrupting the mother country. It was the dangerous precedent and usurpation fraught with so many alarming possibilities, against which they rebelled—the attempt to vest the Taxing Power in some other than the legislature. This and this alone was what fired the great heart of Revolution.

Of the three essential principles of government which, by an unrelenting hold upon the purse-string, the English parliament was able to wring from its kings, the right to inquire into public abuses was indeed momentous, but not so vital as that which securely lodged the tax-power in the legislature, at once the nearest to and freshest from the people. "Tell me when and where did freedom exist when the sword and the purse were given up from the people?"

Chatham, Burk, Fox and Holland warned the king that such a usurpation was fraught with the most dangerous and fatal consequences; for well they knew that whatever the respect of an Anglo-Saxon for Divine Rights, he would never surrender his grip on the taxing power.

But, alack! Just when the doctrines, crowns and thrones of kings were crumbling, there appeared a curious sort of star, or what might be better, a sort of jack-o'-lantern, with tyrant smirk and lowering men, in the great glowing West.

Have you noticed the flash-light group of Governors who recently met in conference up East? Well, the toughest looking specimen—by the way, speaking of specimens, this one should never be buried when it dies, but carefully stuffed and sent to a museum—the toughest looking specimen in that little reservation was it—our own Worthy, the feudal Lord and Sovereign, Augustus the First of Kentucky: and, right here I want to interpose my allegiance, and say, as a cringing, loyal vassal, bending the supple hinges of the knee, "that thrift may follow fawning," that no ruler has ever been quite so ramstogeous and rantankerous, since the days when Hercules cleaned stables and pounded kings into rat holes, in the profigate abuse of the pardoning, military and taxing powers—usurpations more flagrant than that of George the Third, because they are infinitely less justified in morals.

Yet, descended as we are from the Revolution, how tamely, how abjectly we have bared our necks to the heel of the tyrant, and in conquered silence saw open violation of the very principle for which Patrick Henry precipitated an awful war—submitted without a grunt or groan. Great Shades of Liberty and Revolution! Is this the apathy that follows delirium or the craven meekness of avarice and luxury? Ah! can this be "Greece, but living Greece no more?"

The spirit of liberty had died in Rome before the despot came. "While the people retain their sound and healthful state," said Monroe in his first inaugural, "every thing is safe. They will choose competent and faithful representatives in all departments. It is only when the people themselves become ignorant and corrupt that they are no longer capable of sovereignty. THEN USURPATION IS EASY, AND THE USURPER IS SOON FOUND."

Yes, it would seem Augustus knows the temper of his decaying subjects—knows that, while Freedom may tread the aesteasted glens of old Scotland or couch in the magnificent mountains of Switzerland, here her banners trail. So thrust your rapacious hand, tyrant like, deep as you want, into the pockets of your vassal—he'll not whimper. "Lay on, McDuff, and d—d be he who dares cry: Hold! Enough!"

It was from fear that, by loose construction of its provisions, Federal authority could destroy our liberties with the abuse of the military and taxing power, that George Clinton and Patrick Henry so long resisted the ratification of the Constitution.

Now, let's see. We have a State Supervising Board whose duty it is to go over the lists of assessments and justly EQUALIZE them, but no taxpayer ever dreamed of vesting this irresponsible Board with the dangerous power of levying taxes—a power which the English race would never entrust to their kings. Yet this Board, responsible and accountable to nobody, in whose appointment the tax-payer had no choice or voice, has arbitrarily, despotically raised the value of taxable property, over the sworn estimate of the owner, County Assessor and County Board, 61 millions of dollars in 1910 and 30 millions in 1911, a total of 91 millions of dollars in two years.

The expedient of raising our taxes by raising assessed values is the same to the pockets of the taxpayers as if the rate on the $100 had been increased, and is none the less the exercise of the taxing power, and none the less a menace and an aggression that no people should tolerate. It is the very act of usurpation that inspired the Fifth Resolution, the very "lash of the tyrant that stirred all Rome." For far slighter offenses against the liberty of the people, many a man has been sent to the block, and this jack-o'-lantern should profit by the example. "If this be treason, make the best of it."

When his majesty was crowned at the capitol only a little over three years ago, to his great delight he found his predecessors had unwise left a net surplus of more than a million dollars, and the way he ticked his chops over that board made the jewels rattled in his crown like divers beans in a gourd.

That surplus, with all the taxes collected in the three years, is gone; besides the taxes collected on 25 millions which the taxpayers voluntarily added to their lists in 1910. The taxes on the 91 millions which his pliant Board, without warrant, added to the aggregate, is gone. Still this is not all. The enormous deficit of over one million of dollars now, like Banquo's ghost, haunts him in his dreams.

What of dereliction and incompetency, with their wasteful consequences and the exploiting of his soldiery. In the great brazen-throated Wilson War in which, with the sword in one hand and the public purse in the other, he sought to make a virtue of ambition, the lean earnings of the tired muscle and brawn of the people have been dissipated in a reckless extravagance little short of criminal.

No wonder Judge O'Rear, who wanted at least a shadow of ground upon which to make an appeal to the voter, hesitated to endorse an administration, which, among its many other follies and abuses, had not only arbitrarily levied tax upon the farmer, laborer and merchant by raising the value of their property, which had been listed under the oath of both owner and Assessor and indorsed by the County Board, behind which no State official should ever be allowed to go, but had actually collected nearly one hundred and sixteen thousands of dollars LESS taxes on the State and National banks than was collected by his predecessor in the same length of time. What means this discrimination against the masses in favor of the banks? If this is good faith, great God! deliver us from such demoralizing honesty! If it is malfeasance, lay down the fence and turn the stupid out; if it is malfeasance, then, by the Eternal, impeach him!

O'Rear knew this endorsement swept from under his feet every argument with which he had hoped to convince the people, and left him without a loop or peg on which to hang his hapless campaign. Yet, his party forced this condition upon him in spite of his protest and steam-roller, and now he is driven to the discrediting extremity of coddling the voter with the voice of O'Rear, was practically stated by T. W. Vinson, Republican nominee for superintendent of public instruction, who has been in Owensboro all this week soliciting campaign funds. He came here almost directly from the Republican State headquarters at Louisville. Discussing the campaign prior to the election of Governor Wilson, and the sending out of the notorious telegrams immediately before the election in which it was claimed that the Democratic party had sold out to the liquor interests, Mr. Vinson is quoted as saying:

"The present campaign is almost identical with the last gubernatorial race. O'Rear is gaining ground every day, and mark my word (and you will remember this three days before the coming election) there will be developments that will sweep whole counties solidly into our ranks."

He refused to state what these developments would disclose, but intimated that preparations had already been made to spring a big surprise on the Democrats just three days before the election.

A Household Medicine That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

A Household Medicine

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2526 Jefferson St., South Omaha, Neb., says: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold and my neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." For night coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. Always in a yellow package. For sale by all druggists.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 25, 1911.

ELECTIONS IN EIGHT STATES

To be Held Next Tuesday, November 7.

MATTERS ARE BEING WATCHED

By the People as Index to Result of National Race Next Year.

EYES TOWARD KENTUCKY

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—There will be elections in eight States and in a number of the leading cities of the country on November 7. In Massachusetts, Kentucky, Maryland, Rhode Island, Mississippi and New Mexico, a Governor and other State officers are to be chosen; in New Jersey and Virginia, a legislature only; in New York, several members of the State judiciary, and in Nebraska, a supreme judge, regent of the State university and Railroad Commissioner. In Pennsylvania, Ohio, Utah and California, municipal officers are to be selected, while in New York county a number of judges and a sheriff are to be voted for.

The chief interest of national politicians in the State elections is directed toward Massachusetts and Rhode Island. Both are industrial States and are directly concerned in the tariff, which has been brought forward as a prominent issue in the campaign. Governor Foss is a candidate for re-election as Governor of Massachusetts on the Democratic ticket. Louis A. Frothingham, at present Lieutenant Governor, is the Republican choice for Governor. While Republican leaders appear confident they will carry the State this year, many observers feel more than doubtful about the prospect, and would not be at all surprised at the re-election of Governor Foss. For the first time since the Republicans began their long lease of power in the Bay State, now more than 50 years ago, their control of the legislature is seriously challenged this year.

A condition of uncertainty about the result in Rhode Island is also reported, in view of the fact that last year Governor Pothier, Republican, had but a small margin of victory over Lewis A. Waterman, the Democratic candidate for Governor. This year the same candidates head the tickets and under the circumstances the Democrats naturally have hopes that they will be victorious.

In Kentucky, while the Republicans are putting up a rather stiff fight, the Democracy is generally expected to win. The latter has an able and well known candidate for Governor in the person of James B. McCreary, former Governor and United States Senator. The Republican ticket is headed by Judge Edward C. O'Rear. The legislature to be elected in Kentucky will choose a United States Senator to succeed Thomas H. Paynter. The election

CAUSES MUCH DISEASE

Advice About Stomach Troubles and How to Relieve Them.

Do not neglect indigestion which may lead to all sorts of ills and complications. An eminent physician once said that ninety-five per cent. of all the ills of the human body have their origin in a disordered stomach.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be among the most dependable remedies known for the relief of indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is very prompt. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time tends to bring about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets help to insure healthy appetite, to aid digestion, and thus promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes—prices 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain them only at our store—The Rexall Store—James H. Williams, 214 Main street, Hartford, Kentucky.

of Congressman Ollie James to the senatorship is a foregone conclusion.

In Maryland there is a straight contest between the Democrats and Republicans, with the last-named enjoying a slight advantage in the race by reason of the dissension in the Democratic ranks. The Democratic candidate for Governor is Arthur P. Gorman, son of the late United States Senator. Opposing him on the Republican ticket is Phillip Lee Goldsborough, a well known citizen of Baltimore.

There is only one ticket—the Democratic—in Mississippi, and the result, of course, is not doubtful. The next Governor of that commonwealth will be Earl M. Brewer, a prominent lawyer of Clarksdale.

In Nebraska, though the officers to be chosen are of relatively small importance, a spirited campaign has been carried on with an eye to future results. The legislature to be chosen in Virginia will be the election of two United States Senators, but the choice of these has already been determined in the primary. New Mexico will hold her first State election for Congressmen, Governor and other State officers, judiciary and legislature, and county officers. National politicians are interested in the result because it will increase the numerical strength of one or the other of the two parties in Congress. The sister State of Arizona has decided to defer the holding of her first election until December.

In New York county the Republicans have fused with the Independence League, the Citizens' Union and other so-called independent organizations on the county ticket, which is made up of a number of court justices and a sheriff. The contest for members of the General Assembly also is receiving much attention because the Republicans are sparing no efforts to win back this branch of the State Legislature, which last year went Democratic for the first time in many years.

In point of interest, several of the municipal campaigns far exceed that of the State contests. Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Toledo, Salt Lake City and San Francisco—all are the scenes of hard fights for control of the municipal offices. In practically all of these municipal contests the reform question is a dominant issue.

To the country as a whole these elections, both State and municipal, will be of interest chiefly as they will serve to indicate the drift of popular opinion concerning the parties. Perhaps they will leave the outlook no clearer than it is at present, but if for any reason one party should show decided gains in the voting, the fact will be classified as an indicator of what may happen next year.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

CHINA YIELDS TO THE DEMANDS OF ASSEMBLY

Peking, Oct. 26.—The imperial government yielded absolutely to yesterday's demands of China's national assembly. In compliance with the demands, the throne dismissed Sheng Huan Huan, minister of posts and communications, ordered Prince Cheng, president of the cabinet, before the board of inquiry, where he undoubtedly will be severely dealt with, and released from custody the leaders in the riots at Cheng Tu. The government's undignified surrender, however, is generally approved. Members of the legations, old in experience in Chinese affairs, would not be surprised to see the revolution abruptly terminated through the government granting complete and immediate constitutional government. News from the disaffected parts of the empire is scarce.

For pains in the side or chest, dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Liniment and bind it on over the seat of pain. There is nothing better. For sale by all dealers.

For classy job printing: The Herald

COUNTY UNIT PLUS WHISKEY.

Friendship, like love, is hard to understand. By those on the outer side, But when it's too fervent and zealous, A scheme is most clearly implied. For instance, if Edward has money galore.

And John is financially "in," Ed will have carloads of friendship,

'Cause John wants to borrow some "tin."

Transversely, if John be in power And Ed has an ax to grind, The "ties" of unbroken friendship Are thus in a nutshell defined.

"Consistency, thou art a jewel," Then regardless of favor or fear, We don't want a foot on each side of the fence,

Like the Hon. Judge O'Rear.

We want a man to stand on his plank,

Regardless of where it may float,

And not to cast anchor midway the stream

For passage on a two-faced boat.

High up in the moonshine districts,

In the hollows lonely and drear,

'Twas there county unit was meant to be

By the Hon. Judge O'Rear.

But whiskey distilled according to law

By John and his coalition

Was not intended to be under the ban

Of legal prohibition.

Down here where the legal business flows,

The Judge seems for whiskey straight,

But a Prohibition from head to foot

When he enters the moonshine State.

We don't like unfaithful pledges

In the footlights of vanity fair,

Nor the odor of tainted $1 bills

'Round the Gubernatorial chair.

When John goes down to Paducah

On a Sunday afternoon,

He'll never be caught by political graft

Like the hoodwinked coveted "coons."

John is too great a financier

And has too much good sense

To bet a dollar on Judge O'Rear

And just win fifteen cents.

This commonwealth is too noble and grand

To barter her honor for self,

Or to yield up her pride and dignity

To some political elf.

Kentucky is ranked by sister States

As a star in the nation's dome,

And the hand that would tarnish her virtues

Is a traitor to Statehood and home.

Fordsville, Ky. N. P. KELLY.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Char. H. Fletcher

Rid of it at last.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 27.—"I am glad for the opportunity to have my name changed," said Miss Katherine Ottorordemgentschenfelde, 23 years old, to-day, as she was handed the papers which gave her the privilege to change the burdensome appellation. She will be married to Louis Kalen, a farmer.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

FATAL DUEL BETWEEN HUSBAND AND WIFE

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 28.—Setting aside family differences with pistols, Perry Clevenger and his wife fought a duel at their home this afternoon, in which she was killed and he wounded.

Through one of his wife's shots bad hit him, Clevenger went to his room and fired a bullet through his brain, dying almost instantly.

The trouble was caused by Mrs. Clevenger's objection to a "wine room" run in connection with her husband's "soft drink" stand, according to a brother of Clevenger, who also gave above details of the shooting to the police.

THREE SETS OF TRIPLETS WIPE OUT AN OLD FEUD

Pittsburg, Penn., Oct. 27.—There is joy to-night in the homes of Patrick Mulligan, Eustace Killeen and Abraham Moskowitz, who are next-door neighbors in White street, Turtle Creek, and this is the reason:

Between 12:30 and 3 o'clock this afternoon the stork visited the three homes and left at each place boy triplets. Moskowitz had not been on friendly terms with Mulligan and

For classy job printing: The Herald

Are You a Woman?

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

JG1

YOU WANT a Better JOB?

That question will be asked you almost daily by business men seeking your services, if you qualify—and how ambition to rise. More BANKERS endorse DRAUGHON'S Colleges than endorse all other business colleges COMBINED. 48 Colleges in 18 States. International reputation. Banking, Typewriting, Penmanship, English, Spelling, Arithmetic, Letter Writing, Business Law—FREE auxiliary branches. Good Positions GUARANTEED under reasonable conditions.

Bookkeeping. Bookkeepers all over the United States say that Draughon's New System of Bookkeeping saves them from 25 to 50 per cent in work and worry.

Shorthand. Practically all U. S. official court reporters write the System of Shorthand Draughon Colleges teach. Why? Because they know it is the best.

DRAUGHON'S PRACTICAL BUSINESS COLLEGE

Nashville or Memphis or Knoxville, Tenn., or Paducah, Ky., or Evansville, Ind.

Professional Cards.

J. M. PORTER,
Attorney at Law,
BEAVER DAM, KY.

Will practice his profession in Ohio and adjoining counties. Special attention given to all business entrusted to him.

FRANK L. FELIX,
Attorney at Law,
HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice his profession in Ohio and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals. Criminal practice and Collections a specialty. Office in the Herald building.

C. M. BARRETT,
BARRETT & SMITH,
Attorneys at Law,
HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice their profession in all the Courts of Ohio and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals. Collections a specialty.

OTTO C. MARTIN S. P. MCKENNEY
MARTIN & MCKENNEY
HARTFORD, KY.

..GENERAL INSURANCE.
LIFE, ACCIDENT, SICK AND FIRE

Will Also Bond You.

Otto C. Martin
Attorney at Law
HARTFORD, KY.

Office up stairs over Wilson & Crowe, opposite conut house. Will practice his profession in all the courts of this and adjoining counties and Court of Appeals. Commercial and criminal practice a specialty.

CONSUMPTION Can Be CURED TO PROVE IT

We send FREE a bottle Germain, a quick relief for lung trouble, cough, pains in chest, and the run down feeling. (Mention this paper.)

OHIO MEDICAL COMPANY
Box 65 COLUMBUS, OHIO

HAVE A ROUGH RIVER TELEPHONE

--PLACED IN YOUR RESIDENCE OR PLACE OF BUSINESS, AND PUT YOURSELF IN DIRECT CONTACT WITH THE

Long Distance Lines

TO ALL STATES.
FOR THE COMPANY'S SPECIAL CONTRACT TO THE FARMERS, CALL ON OR ADDRESS

J. W. O'BANON.

Local Manager,

Hartford, Ky.

W. C. SEXTON.

Local Manager.

Incorporated. Beaver Dam, Ky.

Subscribe for The Herald.

RHEUMATISM

This nerve-racking disease is caused from impure blood and uric acid poison. External applications sometimes give temporary relief but won't cure; the sure way to secure permanent results is to thoroughly eradicate from the blood all the impurities. Nothing on earth will drive out the poisons from your system, keep the bowels, kidneys and liver in good condition as SEVEN BARKS, the wonderful remedy that has proved its great merit the past 42 years.

SEVEN BARKS can be had of all druggists,

at 50 cents per bottle. Give it a good trial

The Hartford Herald

HEBER MATTHEWS, FRANK L. FELIX, EDITOR.
FRANK L. FELIX, Pub. and Prop'r.

Entered at the Hartford post-office as mail matter of the second class.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

U. S. SENATOR—Ollie M. James, of Crittenden.

GOVERNOR—Jas. B. McCreary, of Madison.

LIEUT. GOV.—Edward McDermott, of Jefferson.

TREASURER—Tom Rhea, of Logan.

AUDITOR—Henry M. Bosworth, of Fayette.

ATTORNEY GENERAL—James
Garnett, of Adair.

SECRETARY OF STATE—C. F.
Crecelius, of Pendleton.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—Barksdale Hamlett, of Christian.

COMMISSIONER OF AGRICUL-TURE—J. W. Newman, of Woodford.

CLERK OF COURT OF AP-PEALS—Robert Greene, of Franklin.

R. R. COMMISSIONER—Lawrence
B. Finn.

SENATOR 7th DISTRICT—Robt.
Hardison, of Muhlenberg.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE, OHIO
COUNTY—M. T. Westerfield.

Democratic Ticket For City
Councilmen—P. B. Taylor, Fred
Cooper, E. P. Moore, J. H. B. Carson, W. J. Bean, R. T. Hoover.

Democrats should use every effort to get out the vote of their party. By this way only can we win.

— Vote the Democratic ticket straight and thus rebuke the charge of Judge O'Rear that seventy thousand Kentucky voters are for sale.

Vote for M. T. Westerfield for Representative from Ohio county and rebuke the shameless steam roller method employed to put his opponent in the field.

Please compare your tax receipt this year with those of other recent years and see what the Wilson administration has done for you. And remember Judge O'Rear endorses this.

The great (?) Republican rally here last Saturday lacked nearly four thousand people of being what it was intended to be—that is, they expected it to be about the size of the recent Democratic rally.

The Louisville Post and Herald, organs of the Republican party in the State, are giving Judge O'Rear and his coterie of office-seekers rather weak support. Evidently these papers see the drift of sentiment and have adopted policies accordingly.

Go to that Democrat who lives across the country and who you do not know whether will get to the polls or not, and see him about it. He'll no doubt appreciate the interest you take in him, and it may be another extra vote for the Democratic ticket and good government.

Judge O'Rear's full endorsement of Gov. Wilson's administration is perhaps the most bitter pill Republican voters have to swallow. Many Republicans, however, are not going to take the dose. As a Governor, Mr. Wilson has proven a dismal disappointment, even to the members of his own party.

Remember, a vote under the rooster means a vote to send Ollie James to the U. S. Senate. Every great principle which the Democratic party stands for will be on trial in the Senate for the next few years, and a man of Ollie James' great intellect and high courage is needed there to fight the battles of the people.

The Beaver Dam Booster asks:
"Who can tell just how many people attended the Democratic rally at Hartford?" If the Booster man had read The Herald's account of that event, he would have found an accurate story of just how many dinners were handed out, which comes within a dozen or two of it at least.

In a speech at Newport, Judge O'Rear said: "But somehow I do not believe Kentucky is for sale." And yet in his opening speech at Elizabethtown Judge O'Rear made the charge that 70,000 Kentuckians annually sell their votes. What caused the Judge to change his opinion? Have his managers tried to buy some of them and failed?

Whenever a Democrat mentions the foul assassination of William Goebel, he is accused by Republican leaders of "waving the bloody shirt." One cannot help from thinking of Goebel's assassination, however, when contemplating the fact that Powers and Finley are on the stump for O'Rear, and that the latter has never condemned the pardons granted these men. It was all right for Powers to go over that assassination business in his race for Congress, but it was all wrong for the Democrats who mourn the death of Gov. Goebel to call attention to this significant fact.

Judge O'Rear has been compelled to admit that he believes the Democratic candidates, if elected, will pass a law extending the county unit. His tour of the State has evidently convinced Judge O'Rear that a majority of the voters believe that Gov. McCreary will redeem the pledges of his platform, and that the temperance people can absolutely rely upon his honesty and simplicity.

Speaking of the race for State Senator in this district, the Morgantown Republican says that after election, Mr. Holman, the Republican nominee, "will vote in the Senate as Judge O'Rear directs." Sure, Does anybody expect anything else? Who ever heard of a Republican officeholder in this section who was not subject to the orders of his bosses—the "higher authority?"

The Hartford Republican continues to repeat its barefaced falsehood proven so by Mr. McCreary's recent speech in Hartford) that Senator McCreary said that "the Republican party in Kentucky is a party of assassination." Having gone the full limit of scurrility and misrepresentation, the Hartford organ of the g. o. p. cares little these days how much it may add to its shameless editorial policy.

Some men complain at the way public affairs are run and yet they do not take enough interest in their party's ticket or good government to go to the polls and vote. It's a sign of integrity and of being up with the times to use your voting privilege. It's a sacred right that ought to be cultivated. The fellow who stays at home on election day, even though he may have to go several miles to vote, ought not to complain at the way official affairs are run.
Let your vote be recorded.

One of the most scathing and truthful arraignments of our present Wilson Taxing Power, couched in the forceful and convincing language so characteristic of the writer, that has appeared in print anywhere, is the article by our old friend Suggs on the second page of The Herald to-day. It is a gem of rhetoric and research and a contribution to current literature and information that is well worth a thoughtful perusal. It certainly gets right down to brass tacks.

Can you remember a single good thing worthy of note that Republican government of Kentucky has recompensed? What special good thing has a Republican Governor of Kentucky ever done? Haven't their State administrations been rather notorious for soldiers and arms and a ruling by force? Haven't they a record of this sort of thing? Democratic State administrations have never been characterized by any such methods, but rather by peace and progress. Which do you like best?

Remember Judge O'Rear's plintform endorses every act of the present State administration. Mr. Democrat, Mr. Republican how do you like it? Has this administration done the people of the State any good whatever? Has the State as a whole been benefited in the least?
Have the farming classes been helped in any single particular? Ask yourself what Republican officeholders have ever done for Kentucky that was worth while, and see if you can conscientiously afford to continue this sort of business.

Most people will remember the infamous trick which the Republican leaders sprung on Sunday before the election on Tuesday four years ago. Telegrams were scattered broadcast and read in many of the pulpits of the State, alleging that the Democrats had sold out to the whiskey interests of the State. This was afterwards proven to be an infamous lie, but it had its effect upon many good people who believed it.
Let Democrat be on their guard for something equally as dastardly and false from the Republican side these last days.

The Hartford Republican throws a hard fit in its last issue because The Herald came forward in a manly way and offered amends to Mr.
C. E. Woods for printing a communication which reflected upon Mr. Woods' personal and political character. We expected this. The Republican is so unused to practicing anything that is fair and manly towards a political opponent, so immersed in the slime of political scurrility and abuse, that of course what The Herald did would never be undertaken by it at all. When The Herald is wrong, it acknowledges its error. When the Republican gets in bad, it adds insult to injury by continuing in its shameless course, without a word of regret or retraction.

Judge O'Rear intimates to the farmers that he knows a way to get them twelve cents for their tobacco, and that he has known the secret for several years. Then why has he not taken Gov. Wilson and Attorney General Breathitt into his confidence in recent years and stopped the tobacco trouble which were brought about simply because the farmers were raising the weed at starvation prices? It would have put millions of dollars into the pockets of this oppressed class of our citizens and also saved the State much money. Why does Judge O'Rear hold this secret so long?

As anticipated in The Herald last week, Republican leaders are planning to bring a sensational charge on the Democrats just before the election, in order to try to stampede the voters to Judge O'Rear. This was clearly outlined in the remarks of T. W. Vinson, Republican nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction, at Owensboro last week.
Mr. Vinson said: "O'Rear is gaining ground every day, and mark my word (and you will remember this) three days before the coming election there will be developments that will sweep whole counties solidly into our ranks." Let's watch and see.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING!

Hon. Lavega Clements, of Owensboro, will speak at Beaver Dam, Saturday, Nov. 4, 1911, at 1:30 p.m. and McHenry at night. Mr. Clements is a strong, pleasing speaker and you should hear him.
Everybody come. Ladies invited.

G. H. LIKENS,
Chmn. Cam. Com.

C. M. CROWE, Sec'y.

THE ONLY DANGER IS FAILING TO GET OUT VOTE

There is only one danger that the Democrats face, and it is over-confidence. To make Democratic success certain, it is absolutely necessary that the vote should be gotten out. Every County Chairman, and every Precinct Committeeman is giving his personal time to this important work, and they should be aided by the individual Democrats.
Take your neighbor to the polls with you, and there will be no doubt that the Democrats will win a glorious victory. If only five Democrats in every precinct in the State remain away from the polls, it will mean a difference of over ten thousand votes. Republicans are active and determined, and are making desperate efforts to poll every vote. Vote early, and urge all your friends to do likewise.

INCREASE IN TAX RATE
DUE TO REPUBLICANS

When you are looking over your State tax bills for this year, don't forget that the increase is due to the Republican administration at Frankfort, which has received O'Rear's hearty endorsement. The increase in the value of farm lands for assessment purposes in the last two years alone, has been over ninety-two million dollars. When Judge O'Rear was asked if he approved what the State Board of Equalization had done in placing this burden upon the shoulders of the farmers, he answered that they had done their duty under the law, and he endorsed their acts.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT RESPECT

To the officers and members of Beacon Lodge, No. 273, I. O. O. F.:
Dear Brethren:—Your committee appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of the members of this lodge on the death of our beloved brother, Jas. D. Ball, who was called into the great beyond Oct. 1, 1911, beg to report as follows:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to call home our beloved brother, therefore be it

Resolved, That, while we deeply deplore the loss of our brother, we bow in humble submission to the Divine Will, knowing that our Heavenly Father doeth all things well.

Resolved, further, that in the death of Bro. Ball this lodge has lost a faithful member and the family a kind and loving husband and father.

Resolved; further, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our lodge, a copy be sent to the county papers for publication, and a copy to the bereaved family.

W. L. FISHER,
ROBERT YOHAM,
A. J. WAKELAND, Committee.

Subscribe for The Herald—$1 a year

MOVING PICTURES
FOR REPUBLICANSSome Instructive Films Are Suggested

THAT WOULD PLAINLY DEPICT

Matters of Current Interest to the Voters of Old Kentucky.

ILLUSTRATIONS TRUE TO LIFE

The Elizabethtown News says:
Up in Eastern Kentucky the Republicans have several moving picture shows with illustrations to help elect Judge O'Rear. We want to suggest the following films which would be quite instructive:

First Film—W. O. Bradley seated on a beer keg with the liquor lobby behind him and four boisterous Democratic members of the Legislature, each peeping from behind a whiskey barrel, as Edward C.
O'Rear, clothed in judicial ermine, places a halo of purity around the head of W. O. Bradley.

Second Film—Senator LaFollette, the leader of the Insurgent Republicans in the Senate, denouncing President Taft as having betrayed the people and broken his promises by signing the Aldrich-Payne tariff bill and vetoing the tariff-reduction bill passed by Congress. President Taft making his speech at Winona declaring the highest tariff bill the best ever framed. Judge Edward C. O'Rear, a greatest living acrobat, turning a double somersault in the air, springing from the shoulders of LaFollette and alighting on the shoulders of Taft.

Third Film—O'Rear with uplifted hand declaring at the Republican convention that he endorses Taft for renomination for President and as a companion piece, a political graveyard with monuments to the dead ones, including Taft and Wilson and Judge O'Rear putting flowers on their graves.

Fourth Film—O'Rear, the chief apostle of Prohibition, denouncing the saloon as a menace to society; with a companion piece of O'Rear and McCulloch, the President of the Distillers Association, arranging to collect funds from the distillers by holding a conference on Sunday in a hotel room at Paducah.

Balked at Cold Steel.
"I wouldn't let a doctor cut my foot off," said H. D. Ely, Bantam, Ohio, "although a horrible ulcer had been the plague of my life for four years. Instead I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my foot was soon completely cured." Heals burns, boils, sores, bruises, eczema, pimpla, corns. Sorest pile cure—
25¢ at James H. Williams.

For Sale, Farms—All sizes, from 6 to 300 acres. We can please you if you want to buy land.

A. C. YEISER & CO.,
Hartford, Ky.

Subscribe for The Herald. $1 a year.

Likens &
Acton

Just have in a new line of Furniture, Groceries, Queen-ware, Hardware and Harness.

Boys, the bird season will soon be open. Buy your shells and get ready for the first shot:

Visit our store and take a look, where you get the right price for your produce, and every dollar does its full duty.

LIKENS & ACTON
Hartford, Kentucky.

UNDERWEAR

JACK FROST

Has, no doubt, reminded you that you need more and better protection for your body—that some new Underwear will supply your deficiency.

We are in a position to furnish the Underwear you need any weight you may desire.

MEN'S

Cotton Union Suits or Shirts and Drawers, with or without fleecings, as well as the Wool Shirts and Drawers in red, gray and tan.

LADIES'

Vests, Pants and Union Suits of the best makes and a variety from which you can make a satisfactory selection.

CHILDREN'S

Vests, Pants and Union Suits from the smallest to the largest.

It will be to your advantage to buy your Underwear for the whole family here.

E.P. Barnes & Bro.,
BEAVER DAM, KENTUCKY.

The Handy Heater

Sensible Shoe Talk

No nonsense, but a plain, matter-of-fact talk we want to make to you about our

BIG SHOE STOCK

$4.00

A neat, stylish button shoe for young men's evening or semi-dress wear. A very smart and up-to-date shoe.

"Korrect Shape"

Patent Leather Shoes
GUARANTEED NOT TO BREAK

The "Burro-Jap" label shown stitched into the lining of the shoe above can be found only in "Korrect Shape." It is worth looking for, because if the patent leather in shoes bearing this label breaks through before the first sole is worn through you can have a new pair free.

For half a century Bart & Packard's name has meant "perfect fitting shoes."

BUY A PAIR TO-DAY.
The Bart & Packard Co.
Makers, BROCKTON, MASS.

FIRST

We carry no Shoes in our stock which we cannot conscientiously recommend to our trade.

SECOND

We recommend for ladies' and children's wear our Priesmeyer and Patrician Shoes; none better.

THIRD

We recommend for men and boys' wear our Korrect Shape Guaranteed Burro-Jap Shoes. Madeon snappy last and wear like iron. Buy a pair and you will wear no other.

FOURTH

No doubt you have been buying Shoes that are unsatisfactory.
It's time for a change. Come, let us show you our stock, and if our Shoes do not come up to your expectation, don't buy. We will only thank you for the opportunity of showing them to you.

Don't forget this and Remember it Pays to Trade With a House That Saves You Money.

Piano Coupons Given With Every Purchase

FAIR & GO
THE FAIR DEALERS

Illinois Central Railroad. Time Table at Beaver Dam, Ky., North Bound, South Bound.
No. 132-4:05 a.m. No. 121-11:35 p.m.
No. 122-12:28 p.m. No. 101-2:48 p.m.
No. 102-2:48 p.m. No. 131-8:55 p.m.
J. E. Williams, Agt.

LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL POINTS

Nice fresh Pack Mackerel.
W. H. MOORE & SON.

Jumbo Pickles—they are fine.
43tf W. H. MOORE & SON.

Fall Crockett and J. & K. Shoes are in, at Barnard & Co's.

Superior Union Suits for men are not equalled by any.

BARNARD & CO.

Hominy, both flake and crushed, at W. H. Moore & Son's Meat Market.

Mrs. John R. Phipps is quite ill of typhoid fever at her home on Union street.

Dutchess Pants at Barnard & Co.'s—$1 if they rip, 10c for each button that comes off.

Mr. Harry Monroe, of Beaver Dam, gave The Herald a pleasant call while in town Friday.

Beautify your homes with flowers. Barnard & Co. sell Narcissus two for 5c, Sacred Lillies 5c.

For Sale—Town property, vacant lots, cottages and two-story dwelling.

A. C. YEISER & CO.,
Hartford, Ky.

Leave your Laundry at my Grocery.
Domestic finish. Work Guaranteed.
Called for and prompt delivery.
Phone 140. Her's Grocery.

When you need Drugs of any kind please don't forget the OHIO COUN-TY DRUG CO. has the quality and the price is right also.

Try a sack of Irvington "None Such" Flour. There is none better to be had anywhere. Sold exclusively by W. H. Moore & Son.

OLD PAPERS FOR SALE at The Herald office. Nice and clean, tied up in bundles. Five cents a bundle, three for ten cents.

Col. Hugh Murray, of Equality, Ill., who is interested in the oil operations near Hartford, has been here the past few days.

Misses Mattie Moseley and Alta
Mae Likens, teachers at McHenry

THE HARTFORD HERALD

Mr. J. F. Vickers, Owensboro, was in Hartford Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. Ansel Wilson, Rosine, gave
The Herald a pleasant call Thursday.

Dr. C. W. Felix, Olaton, was in Hartford Wednesday for a few hours.

The old reliable Richmond Steam Laundry, Geo. White, agent, Hartford, Ky. Clothes called for and delivered.

Messrs. R. E. Eudaley and Alvis
Fulkerson, Ceralvo; J. S. Cecil,
Hartford, Route 2, and H. T. Felix, Olaton, were pleasant callers at The Herald office Monday.

Judge J. S. Glenn, wife and daughter Miss Leila, and Mary Elizabeth Felix attended quarterly meeting at Liberty last Sunday. After church services they enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Nancy Taylor.

Rev. W. C. Lloyd, of Auburn, will preach at the Cumberland Presbyterian church in Hartford next Sunday morning and evening. Everybody invited and a full attendance of the membership urged to be present.

Moses Fuqua, aged 81, died at the residence of Mr. J. W. Carter, seven miles northeast of Hartford,
last Monday morning at 3 o'clock.
His remains were buried at the Bur-nett's Creek burying grounds, yesterday.

Mr. R. A. Nofsinger, general manager for the Hartford Drug Co., left last Monday for a week's visit to his brother at Hazard, Ky. Mrs.
Nofsinger is likewise visiting relatives in Owensboro this week. Mr.
Marvin Bean is running the drug store during the absence of Mr.
Nofsinger.

TO THE VOTERS OF OHIO COUNTY.

My Friends:—Just one week from to-day you choose your Representative in the Lower House of the General Assembly. It has been impossible for me to make a close canvass of the county, and I will not get to meet all of you, but I want to assure you that if trusted with office, it will be great pleasure to serve all the people of the county with the very best of my ability.
Having been reared on a farm and still engaged as a farmer, my sympathies are naturally with the producing class. I have always done what I could to protect the interests of the laboring people, and I feel that as your Representative I will be in a position to secure legislation that will be of vital interest to you.

I appreciate the support I am receiving from all parties and all classes, and trust by remaining faithful to the trust and loyal to the people, I will merit the confidence reposed in me. May I ask you as my friends to rally to my support and make my election, sure?

Faithfully yours,
M. T. WESTERFIELD.

Pleasant Ridge, Ky., Oct. 31.

Hartford School of Music—Piano, Harmony, Violin and Voice Culture.

Under the direction of Miss Katherine Thompson, of Frankfort, and Miss Margaret Nall, city.

Notes of Rockport Graded School—
Rockport, Ky., Oct. 31.—The Rockport Graded School began its third month's work Oct. 30th with increased enrollment and bright prospects for a good month's work.

Arbor Day was observed Friday, the 27th of Oct. The pupils, patrons and friends assembled on College Hill at 2 p.m. and for an hour the children were busy flitting here and there, planting trees, making flower gardens, singing songs, and speaking pieces appropriate to the occasion, while admiring patrons and friends looked on and thought "it was good to be there." Two flower gardens were planted and nineteen trees were set. The trustees have made many improvements about the building and grounds and we feel that Rockport is making a steady educational growth.

PROF. W. R. CARSON, Prin.

Mr. A. E. Pate, assignee for the Ohio County Bank, has moved his office from the bank building, and will have an office with the Hartford Grocery Co.

Mr. R. B. Martin, city, has been invited by the Press Club, Louisville, to take dinner with President Taft at their club rooms next Wednesday night.

Messrs. N. L. Ross, teacher in Bartlett's Precinct; Estill Bartlett,
Taft, S. W. Gray and Archie Rhoads, Hartford, Route 5, were pleasant callers at The Herald office Saturday.

Mr. Douglas D. Felix spent from Friday until Monday with his parents. He had been summoned to Princeton, Ky., as a witness and stopped off on his return trip to Lexington.

Anyone knowing the present address of Mr. Herbert Patton, formerly of Urbana, Ill., who recently visited relatives in Ohio county, will confer a favor on him and us by sending same to The Herald.

Rev. J. N. Jarnagin has just closed a 10-days rousing meeting at Mt.
Pisgah Baptist church, near Midland. There were 25 additions to the church, 17 of whom were for baptism.—[Muhlenberg Argus.]

Mr. Clarence Field, of Lafayette, La., was here last week, having been called home on account of the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Bettie Rowe. For a number of years Mr.
Field has been a valued employee of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company as stock and claim agent.

Information has been received of the death of James Austin and his eighteen-year-old son, Dan, brother and nephew of Mrs. George Bewley, of Rumsey, McLean county, in a coal mine disaster at Harrisburg, Ill., last Thursday-week. They had been employed in the mines there for several years, but were well known in McLean county.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES.

Com'th. vs. Ben Doss—judgment against William Vincent and R. E.
Humphrey on forfeited bail bond of Ben Doss. The Com'th. of Kentucky recovers of them and each of them $50.

Com'th. vs. Lem Watts—name corrected by order to read, Lee Watt.

Com'th. vs. H. S. Ward—verdict of guilty, penalty from 2 to 21 years.

Com'th. vs. Josie Ward—continued and defendant permitted to go under her own recognizance for $200.

Com'th. vs. Buncom Render, charged with murder—verdict of jury, not guilty.

Com'th. vs. Mont Daugherty—on affidavit, case continued for defendant and set down for trial on 2d day of the February term, 1912. Bond fixed at $800 and failing to execute same, he was remanded to jail.

Com'th. vs. Cora Daugherty—continued.

Court Trials.

W. J. Graham vs. M. H. & E. R.
R. Co.—judgment of $105 for plaintiff.

J. E. Mattingly vs. M. H. & E.
R. R. Co.—judgment for plaintiff of $100.

Wm. Snider vs. M. H. & E. R.
R. Co.—judgment of $112.50 for plaintiff.

NOTES.—Notwithstanding there were 93 appearance cases for the two weeks October term of the Ohio Circuit Court, Judge Birkhead completed the work and adjourned court at noon last Saturday. The jury was discharged Friday afternoon. This work was in addition to the cases continued over from the June term.

BEAVER DAM.

Oct. 30.—Mr. Talmage Southard, of Simmonson, and Miss Florence Brooks were united in marriage at the home of the bride, Mr. Sam Keown's, Sunday at 3 o'clock, Rev.
A. B. Gardner officiating.

Mr. John Jones and family left last week for some point in the mountains, where he will engage in the mining business.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society entertained the good people of town with an oyster supper Saturday evening.

Miss Ara Gardner entertained her Sunday School class last Friday evening with a pumpkin party which was enjoyed hugely by all present. Each girl invited one gentlemen, and those present were:

Misses Altha Williams, Myrl Miller,
Florence Tucker, Edith and Clyde Porter, Irene Taylor, Cliffie Austin, Myrtle Taylor, Bessie Hazelrigg, Dona Quinlan, Ruth Hunley, Eu-niece Williams, Nell Plummer, Francis Hodges. The gentlemen present were: Merle Taylor, Nicholas Hazelrigg, Charles Porter, Gilmore
Keown, Karl Hocker, Frank
Barnes, Fred Rogers, Henry D.
Plummer, Fred Ament and Warder Gardner.

Mr. Owen Williams, of Rockport, and Miss Ethel Hammons, of Horton, were united in marriage at the home Rev. A. B. Gardner
Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
After the ceremony was performed they left for the home of the groom at Rockport, Ky.

Victim of Pellagra.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 28.—Chas.
Loux, 20, of Newport, an inmate of the Feeble Minded Institute, died to-day at that institution in this city, a victim of pellagra.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS
FOR NEURALGIA AND KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

Guns! Guns!

RUN OVER AND KILLED BY TRAIN AT CENTRAL CITY

Al Burch, a well known citizen of McLean county, and whose home is near Island, was run over and instantly killed about 5:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon just as the L. and N. passenger train was entering Central City.

It is claimed that Burch was in an intoxicated condition and had several bottles of beer on his person. He was on the railroad track, and before he could get off, was struck by the train and killed imstantly. His body was horribly mangled.

JAMES AUSTIN AND SON KILLED IN COAL MINE

Information has been received of the death of James Austin and his eighteen-year-old son, Dan, brother
and nephew of Mrs. George Bewley, of Rumsey, McLean county, in
a coal mine disaster at Harrisburg, Ill., last Thursday-week. They had been employed in the mines there
for several years, but were well known in McLean county.

Prices the Lowest.

U. S. CARSON
GROCERYMAN
Hartford, - Kentucky.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar
NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

METHODIST CHURCH
T. V. Joiner, Pastor.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

Owen Williams, Rockport, to Ethel Hammons, Hender Dam.

Luther Duvall, Selet, to Sallie Norman, Select.

James T. Southard, Simmonson, to Florence A. Brooks, Beaver Dam.

*The Hartford HeraldM. H. & E. RAILROAD TIME TABLE AT HARTFORD, KY.

The following L. & N. Time Card is effective from Monday, Aug. 21st:

North Bound—

No. 112 due at Hartford 7:19 a. m.

No. 114 due at Hartford 3:40 p. m.

South Bound—

No. 115 due at Hartford 8:45 a. m.

No. 113 due at Hartford 1:45 p. m.

H. E. MISCHKE, Agt.

MAN "RAGS" DEBTOR AND MEN FIGHT IN CHURCHThe Brethren of a Congregation Engage in Unseemly Altercation.

Mount Carmel, Ill., Oct. 27.—When Elder Deffindall, in a "testimonial service" at Riverside Chapel here, said that to refuse or fail to pay your honest debts is the work of the devil, it almost caused a fight in church, but it also caused Tom Mallett to square up an old account with Luther Greiss, merchant.

Deffindall was ignorant of the fact that Greiss had an account of several years' standing against Mallett. When the preacher called on him to "testify," he arose and said: "Every man ought to be honest and pay his debts. If I owe Brother Mallett a bill and refuse to pay him, it is the work of the devil."

At this point Mallett jumped from his seat and began storming at Deffindall, saying the latter knew very "that he" was indebted to Greiss.

For a moment a fist fight was threatened, but it was averted by someone starting to sing "Just As I Am," which was joined in by the congregation.

Later Mallett went to Greiss and paid him the account.

A Malt Carrier's Lament
Seems heavier when he has a weak back and kidney trouble. Fred Duerhren, Malt Carrier at Atchison, Kan., says: "I have been bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and had a severe pain across my back. Whenever I carried a heavy load of malt, my kidney trouble increased. Some time ago, I started taking Foley Kidney Pills and since taking them I have gotten entirely rid of all my kidney trouble and am as sound now as ever." Foley Kidney Pills are tonic in action and quick in results. Try them. For sale by all druggists.

LONG HUNT TERMINATES IN DEATH FOR FUGITIVE

Middlesboro, Ky., October 26.—In a running fight with a Sheriff's posse early to-day, Cal Miracle, wanted for double murder at Pineville, was killed and Deputy Sheriff Thomas, of the posse, received wounds from which he died later.

The fight took place in the mountains near Clear Creek. A reward for the capture of Miracle has been outstanding for some time.

A posse had been on Cal Miracle's trail for several weeks. Late in August he killed Matthew Johnson and Mrs. William Gibson near Pineville.

Immediately a reward for his capture, dead or alive, was offered, but Miracle eluded pursuit until yesterday, when he was run down in the mountain country, near here. All night the posse stalked Miracle, and this morning he came out in the open to fight. Well armed, Miracle stood off the posse until he fell, his body bullet-ridden.

In severe cases of sore lungs, you need an internal and external remedy. Buying the dollar size BAL-LARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP, you get two remedies for the price of one. With every dollar bottle there is a free HERRICK'S RED PEPPER POROUS PLASTER for the chest. Sold by Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky., Donovan & Co., Beaver Dam, Ky.

The Gist Of It.

Two and two make four. This is a platitude.

Two and two make three. This is demagogism.

Two and two make one hundred and fifty. This is high finance. [November Lippincott's.]

In damp, chilly weather there is always a large demand for BAL-LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT because many people who know by experience its great relieving power in rheumatic aches and pains, prepare to apply it at the first twinge. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky., Donovan & Co., Beaver Dam, Ky.

The Same Old Story.
"It's curious how habits fasten themselves on people," said the first man. "You know Wappeley?"

"Yes."

"He's an enthusiastic fisherman, and always has a story to tell about some gigantic monster of the deep that he almost caught."

"I've heard him tell a lot of lies of that kind."

"Well, it seems that burglars broke into his house the other night and he got up and captured one of them—a little fellow—but you ought to hear him tell about the size of the one that got away!"

A Magazine Worth Watching.

Lippincott's Magazine is worth watching these days—worth watching and worth reading. Its recent substantial increase in size, together with a—presumably—vastly increased monetary appropriation, enables it to present an alluring array of fiction, special articles, and other attractive features. Following the noteworthy issue for October with its striking complete novel by Amélie Rives, comes that for November, with a table of contents just as remarkable. The novelette is "The Island," by Augusta Kortrecht, who has one book—"A Dixie Rose"—and a number of clever short stories to her credit. "The Island" has an original setting and original characters—in fact, there doesn't seem to be anything about it that isn't original. It's the tale of a hare-and-tortoise race for a woman's love—but don't expect a cut-and-dried denouement, for it isn't that kind.

O'REAR'S COMPROMISE WITH SENATOR BRADLEY

It must not be forgotten that before the Republican State Convention, Judge O'Rear had denounced the election of a United States Senator from this State by the corrupt use of a "jack pot." Among those who heard him make this statement, was Hon. Leslie Coombs, Minister to Peru, and one of the leading Republicans of the State. He had publicly declared over his signature, that he, and all others with whom he had spoken, believed that O'Rear referred to the election of Bradley, and they applauded that virtuous sentiment. But when O'Rear's nomination hung in the balance, it was necessary for him to recover some of the strength he had lost by his personal attacks during his race before the convention. Bradley had called him to account for repeating the charge that he had been elected to the Senate by corrupt means, and would accept no other apology save a public tribute that would satisfy his vanity, and appease his wounded honor. It was then that O'Rear made his humiliating surrender, proclaiming Bradley "the greatest living Kentuckian," whose title to the United States Senate was "without flaw or stain."

For classy job printing: The Herald

FREE IF IT FAILS

Your Money Back if You are not Satisfied with the Medicine

We Recommend.

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine, or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthful activity.

We want you to try Rexall Ondrilles on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons, and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness, nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Sold in Hartford only at our store—The Retail Store—James H. Williams, 214 Main street, Hartford, Ky.

The Hartford Herald has adopted a new rule in regard to Obituaries, Resolutions of Respect, Cards of Thanks, &c., whether written at the behest of lodges, churches or individuals, and that is, we shall charge at the rate of two cents per line for all such articles, except obituary poetry, which will be one cent per word, straight. This is the smallest rate we charge for anything and

SPECIAL NOTICEin regard to*OBITUARIES, RESOLUTIONS*OF RESPECT, &c.*SPECIAL NOTICE*in regard to*OBITUARIES, RESOLUTIONS

SCHOOLS IN CHINA

They Have Curious and Strenuous Methods of Teaching.

AMAZING FEATS OF MEMORY.

For Years the Pupils Are Kept "Getting by Heart" Books of Which They Have No Understanding, After Which Comes the Explanation.

A Chinese schoolboy sets off one fine morning when seven or eight years old to enter on his instructional course. He makes the most profound obeisance to his teacher. His parents provide the table at which and the stool on which he sits. They also supply the "four precious articles," the ink slab, the ink cake, the pen or brush for writing and the paper.

He will have no need at first of the writing materials, all his time being employed in memorizing the books given him. Perhaps a dozen boys, each in class by himself, are busy on his entry. Each is shouting his task at the top of his voice, the teacher sitting at his table in all the somnolent wakefulness of a judge. No wrong pronunciation or intonation escapes his practiced ear, and correction is frequent.

It is a simple country house, with its earthen floor, its unglazed windows and its air of utter poverty. Our young hopeful, says the National Review, in due time is introduced to the "Trinomial Classic" and the questionable statement, which forms its very threshold, that "men at birth are radically good," so set in classical form that he has no more idea of its meaning than if it were in Greek. It is not meaning, however, that is the object just now, but sound and memorizing.

Then he will be introduced to the book of surnames, 400 in number, as another exercise in "getting by heart," after which in parts of the land the "Thousand Character Classic" is set. This is a book consisting of the number of characters named, no one of which is ever used twice. Still no explanation is forthcoming. For all the learning our youth is gaining he might with equal profit memorize a number of auction catalogues. He is given in varying order, according to the custom followed by his teacher, the four sacred books—the "Great Learning," also known as "The Door of Virtue," the "Analects" of Confucius, the "Doctrine of the Men" and the "Book of Men-clus."

As early as thirteen, it may be, he will have done the memory work of the four books and be capable of reciting off "yards, rods, furlongs or miles" of learning. Then enlightenment in the form of explanation begins. Darkness is made visible, and education may be said to have begun. There is wearisome work in sight now.

As if the books themselves were not of sufficient difficulty, there are endless commentaries after the fashion of our own on the Bible or Shakespeare. The "Great Learning" provides illustrations of virtue, aims at the constant renewal of good and so at the attainment of the highest excellence. Its ideal is a righteous government over a tranquil and happy people. The "Doctrine of the Men" is more strictly individualistic. Correct conduct in every stage of life is its subject.

The chief competitive examinations are three in number. The first, for the Shusai, or B. A. degree, is held at the prefectural city; the second, the Ku-jeu, or M. A., at the provincial capital, and the third, the Tsin-shi, or LL. D., at Peking. In one or other of these the clever youth whose career we are following may possibly find himself in a peculiar position as competitor with his own father or even his grandfather, who, with more perseverance than luck or brains, keeps "pegging away" year after year till success arrives—or death.

Many are the attempts at trickery, cribbing, bribery or whatever may bring the candidate sufficiently near the top to be one of the favored few who "pass," the percentage of these being fractionally small at times. To guard against fraud, there are precautions such as could never have been suggested in the west.

Every candidate has his own little cell in which he works during the days of the examination. Not a few die under the ordeal. "Any essay is good which gives a man his M. A." says the proverb, and "If one comes out first on the dragon list there is a chance within ten years of being in the Phoenix pool," which being interpreted means that he who heads the M. A. list is likely, by and by to become a Hanlin. So, indeed, it happens to our young hopeful now arrived at years of much discretion. He even becomes the Shuang Yunn of his year, the laureate or senior classic, as he might be named in the west.

Whereupon on his return to his native province he is received with the highest honors from the highest people, the viceroy leading, and then a curious thing happens. Many of the people of the province having the same surname apply for the honor of being permitted to worship at the ancestral hall of the successful genius and accompany their appeals with valuable persuasives. They thus establish a claim to relationship with the ambitious desire of having a friend at court. —New York Sun.

When a man is no longer anxious to do better than well he is done for.—B. Haydon.

Human life is more governed by fortune than by reason.—Hume.

The Scrap Book

Playing Off a Tie.

The last scene in the fashionable life of the Count D'Orsay as told in Mr. Leigham Shore's biography of him: Just before the dinner hour a pastry cook's boy presented himself at Gore House with a dish, sent in, so he said, by the confectioner. Having left this in the kitchen, he deliberately walked upstairs to the count's dressing room.

"Well, who's that?" asked D'Orsay.

It was a sheer life's officer.

"Really?" exclaimed D'Orsay and demanded that he should be permitted to complete the tying of his tie.

Salon or prison, his tie must be perfect.

"Itut, count!"

"Bub, bub! All in good time."

The officer was quite interested in the tying of that tie. Few men had been so honored as to be allowed to see how D'Orsay tied his tie, and, lo, by the time the tie was tied the sun had sunk to rest and D'Orsay was free till sunrise.

"John," said D'Orsay, calmly walking off to the drawing room, "kick that chap out of the door."

The which was executed, and the witt was not.

Example.

We scatter seeds with careless hand
And dream we never shall see them more,
But for a thousand years

Their fruit appears

In weeds that mar the land
Or healthful store.

The deeds we do, the words we say, late still air they seem to fleet.

We count them ever past.

But they shall last—

In the dread judgment they
And we shall meet.

I charge thee by the years gone by,
For the love's sake of brethren dear,

Keep thou the one true way,

In work and play,
Let in that world their ery

Of woe thou hear.

—John Keble.

Easily Improved.

There was no getting away from the fact—Flossie's face was ugly. Even her best friends told her so and seldom visited her without offering her advice or suggesting some kind of remedy. But neither paint nor powder nor paste nor patent preparation was of the slightest use. Flossie's face continued to be ugly, and her friends continued to tell her so.

At last she consulted a specialist. "I am willing," CONSULTED A SPECIALIST, she said, "to pay you anything if you will only make me beautiful. I should like you to start on my nose. Can you improve it?"

The specialist looked at it thoughtfully. Flossie's nose was her weakest point. Leaning back in his chair and half closing his eyes, in his best professional manner, he said:

"Well, madam, I can't guarantee to make it really beautiful, but I couldn't help improving it if I hit it with a mallet."

Sounded Like a Joke.

Miss Christie Macdonald has been taking boxing lessons, so the other night she was fully prepared when, upon leaving the theater, she was insulted by one of the toilers.

Rejoicing in her newly acquired knowledge, Miss Macdonald landed a right hand blow which sent the offender sprawling.

Towering above him, she indignantly said: "How dare you insult a defenseless woman?" and wrathfully passed on.

The brute then looked up and simply murmured, "Defenseless!" — Young's Magazine.

At the Jumping Off Piece.

Colonel John H. Carroll, the Burlington railroad lawyer, was in Washington last winter and, needing the services of a man to travel with him in his private car, hired a good looking and well recommended young fellow from Virginia whom he happened to meet.

The man's name was Gilbert, and he never had been on a railroad train except to come up from his Virginia home to Washington. He traveled with the colonel back and forth between Washington and New York, New York and Chicago and Chicago and St. Louis and rode a good deal on the observation end of the car. All the roads the car went over were two track or four track roads.

Not long ago the colonel had his car switched off on a single track road in Ohio during the night. When Colonel Carroll awoke in the morning and went out to the observation end of the car he found Gilbert contemplating the single track with much interest.

"Colonel," he said, "this here railroad seems to run only one way. How are we goin' to git back?" — Saturday Evening Post.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

As Scipio Was to Hannibal So Was Wellington to Napoleon.

There is probably no more remarkable historical parallel than that exhibited by the career of Scipio Africanus, the hero of the second Punic war, and the Duke of Wellington, the conqueror of Napoleon.

Each was descended from an ancient and noble family. Each was the second greatest soldier of his age, pitted in a life and death struggle against the greatest. As Scipio was to Hannibal so was Wellington to Napoleon. Hannibal threatened the very existence of Rome; Napoleon was in a fair way to become the master of Europe.

Again, Spain was the center of the most splendid achievements of both commanders. The victories of Scipio in Spain are well known to need recapitulation, and Wellington's triumphs in the peninsular war form one of the commonplaces of history.

Neither of these great generals met his arch-enemy until the final and decisive battles—Zama and Waterloo respectively. And the result of both battles was exile to the defeated chiefs. Hannibal retired to Ephesus; Napoleon was deported to St. Helena. But the parallel does not end here. Both Scipio and Wellington exchanged a military for a political career. And here the same fate pursued them. Scipio incurred the enmity of the Roman senate; Wellington gained the hostility of the London populace. And here follows the most remarkable feature of the parallel drawn between these two great men.

Seventeen years elapsed from the battle of Zama—seventeen years to the very day—when the great Scipio was tried on a question of bribery. He was not slow in his defense to remind his judges that on that day he had saved the republic. Seventeen years elapsed from the battle of Waterloo—seventeen years to the very day—when the great Wellington had to take refuge from the attack of a London mob, angered on account of his opposition to the parliament reform bill.

The only point in which the parallel fails is this: Scipio died outside his beloved city of Rome; Wellington has his monument in St. Paul's cathedral, London. But the parallel between the careers of these two extraordinary men remains as one of the curiosities of history.—Youth's Companion.

A HAPPY HOME

Is one where health abounds.
With impure blood there can not be good health.
With a disordered LIVER there cannot be good blood.

revivify the torpid LIVER and restore its natural action.

A healthy LIVER means pure blood.

Pure blood means health.

Health means happiness.

Take no Substitute. All Druggists.

CAUSE AND REMEDY.

Uncertainty of the immediate future is looked upon by many men of affairs, as a blockade to enterprise and business prosperity, and this blockade is now quite apparent throughout the channels of trade.

The Presidential Election; the efforts of Congress with no fixed purpose; Organized Labor as a new factor in politics; together with other matters of greater or less import, represent at this time a chaotic conflict of separate interests, to harmonize which is now the problem before the country.

All want Prosperity, Peace and Plenty. Read with care the Cincinnati Enquirer, a journal that prints all the news each day from every commercial center throughout the world. A barometer of causes and effects that points out, as a Beacon Light, the danger and the safeguard therefrom.

As well known, the Daily Inquirer is the largest in size and highest priced paper in the United States, yet cheapest, measured by quality and quantity.

The Weekly Enquirer, with the cream and digest of all the news, able and conservative editorials, market reports, methods and results from Government and State Experiment Stations, veterinary matters, People's Forum, choice literature, short and continued stories, non-sectarian sermons, general information, etc., with the exclusion of all matters of scandal and immorality, is today the Cleanest Weekly Family Journal obtainable. Each issue is alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

Solicitors for subscriptions make a handsome profit and increase the good influence of The Enquirer in the uplift of morality and industry, and for the betterment and welfare of the community. For terms write to The Enquirer, Cincinnati, Ohio.

A GREAT BARGAIN!

The Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer and

The Hartford Herald Both One

Year For Only $1.25.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy.

Allow no one to deceive you in this.

All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance.

Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

Dr. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

McCall's Magazine and McCall Patterns

For Women

Have More Friends than any other magazine or patterns. McCall's is the reliable Fashion Guide monthly in one million one hundred thousand homes. Besides showing all the latest designs of McCall Patterns, each issue is brimful of sparkling short stories and helpful information for women.

Save Money and Keep in Style by subscribing for McCall's Magazine at once. Costs only 25 cents a year, including any one of the celebrated McCall Patterns free.

McCall Patterns Lead all others in style, fit, simplicity, economy and number sold. More dealers sell McCall Patterns than any other two makes combined. None higher than 25 cents. Buy from your dealer, or by mail from

McCALL'S MAGAZINE

236-246 W. 37th St., New York City

Free Sample Copy. Premium Catalogue Free, on request.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR COUGHS AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES. GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Subscribe for The Herald; $1 a year. Six months, 50c.

Very Serious

It is a very serious matter for one medicine and leave the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine—

THE DEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not imitate other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a larger sale than all others combined.

SOLD IN TOWN

F2

KENTUCKY

Light and Power Company

(INCORPORATED)

E. G. BARRASS, MGR.,

Hartford, Ky.

Will wire your house at cost. Electric Lights are clean, healthy and safe. No home or business house should be without them when within reach.

Tutt's Pills

The Hartford HeraldSOMETHING ABOUT*ANNUAL CORN SHOW

To be Held at College of Agriculture, Lexington, Ky., January 2-5, 1912.

RULES OF THE SHOW.

1. Entries close Saturday, December 23d.

2. All exhibitors must pay the Association membership fee of fifty cents which entitles them to all the benefits of the Association. No exemption is made for the Junior Department.

3. Exhibits may be retained by the owner, all retain charges to be paid by the owner.

4. No exhibitor can make more than one entry in each class, but may enter in each class to which he is eligible. A sample must be provided for each class entered.

5. All corn exhibited must have been grown by the exhibitor in 1911.

6. In the yield and profit contests in the Junior Department, the exhibitor must file certificate of two disinterested persons who measured the ground and weighed the corn. The certificate must be approved by the County Board Superintendent or other person who may be in charge of the boy's corn club of the county. Contestants for the premiums for yield and for profit must make an exhibit of 36 ears of corn grown in the contest corn. Less than one-half acre will not admit to this contest.

7. In making up the cost of production in the profit per acre contest, an itemized statement must be submitted showing all expenditures, the labor and materials used. Labor will be valued at 75 cents per day for boys and $1.00 per day for men. Horses will be credited at 75 cents. Manure will be valued at $1.00 per two-horse wagon load, on account of part of the value remaining in the soil. All fertilizers will be credited at full cost. The corn will be valued at the market price on December 1. This price will be furnished to exhibitors on request.

8. The yield is to be determined by the weight of ear corn when drawn from the field, using 70-lb. to the bushel.

A complete list of rules will be issued with the final premium list.

If you are interested, save your corn and write for completed premium list, and any other information desired. Score cards giving standards may be had on application.

GEO. D. DTS, Sec'y.
Lexington, Ky.

LOVE TRAGEDY ENACTED AT HOPKINSVILLE

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 29.—"Mother, don't grieve after me, I cannot stand to live without Shelly. Oh, for mercy sake, hurry me by the side of my dear one. Don't take my rings and bracelet off."

This is the pitiful note left by Mrs. Everett Jones, formerly Miss Robbie Martin, who committed suicide this afternoon by swallowing carbolic acid, following the death Friday of her sweetheart, Shelly Hill. She had separated some time ago from her husband and had consulted an attorney relative to suing for divorce.

It is said she and Hill had been lovers for months, and during the young man's illness of fever she became very despondent. She spent most of the morning at his grave, and it was immediately after her return from the cemetery and while the family were at dinner that she drank the acid. She was unconscious when found. She was 20 years of age and an unusually pretty woman. She was a seamstress and highly respected.

JOSEPH PULITZER DIES ON BOARD HIS YACHT

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 29.—Joseph Pulitzer, proprietor New York World and St. Louis Post-Dispatch, died at 1:40 o'clock to-day aboard his yacht, the Liberty, in Charleston harbor. The immediate cause of Mr. Pulitzer's death was heart failure. He had been in ill health for several days, but until a few hours before the end none of those around him had any suspicion of the gravity of his condition.

The change for the worse came at about 2 o'clock this morning, when he suffered an attack of severe pain. By daylight he appeared to be better and fell asleep soon after 10:30 o'clock. He awoke at 1 o'clock, complaining of pain in his heart, fell into a faint and expired at 1:40 o'clock.

Mrs. Pulitzer, who had been sent for, arrived from New York to-day and reached the yacht shortly before her husband died. She was at his bedside when the end came, as also was his youngest son, Herbert, who had been cruising with his father.

MONKEY PROVED CURE FOR TWO PARALYTICS

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 28.—When "Jim," a mischievous Simian, owned by T. B. Owens, was being moved to winter quarters to-day, he escaped from his keeper, and accomplished something that doctors have been striving to do for 20 years.

During the rampage that followed his acquired freedom "Jim" put new life into the paralyzed limbs of Oscar Ruhkamp and William Shuckman, both past 60, when, in his effort to tear down all the chandeliers in the place, he so thoroughly frightened the old men that they fled precipitately, leaving canes and crutches behind.

Shuckman, who is a veteran of the Civil War, was wounded and had been paralized ever since, never leaving his home without cane or crutch.

To-day, when the big monkey, which is a cross between an orangutan and a baboon, tore through a howling alley, Shuckman ran out of the back door, and the pace he set for Ruhkamp, who followed, was marked by both speed and endurance. When the monkey was finally corralled, both men were safely in their homes, half a mile away.

PETER ROTHROCK FOUND DEAD IN COUNTRY BARN

The Owensboro Inquirer of Sunday says:

Peter Rothrock, a painter, was found dead in the barn of Turner Iturns, near Sutherland, shortly after 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, by Miss Fred Burns and her aunt, who were in search of eggs. The body of man, lying face downward, greatly frightened the two women, and upon giving the alarm, Fred Burns and Charles Haydon, who were at work on the farm, went to the barn and found the man to be Rothrock.

Coroner Pennington was notified, and accompanied by W. E. Davis of the Owensboro Undertakers' Association, went out to Sutherland, where an inquest was held. The jury returned a verdict that Rothrock came to his death by the excessive use of alcohol and undue exposure, and that the body had been in the barn two or three days.

The body was in a decomposed condition, and the entire right ear was eaten from Rothrock's head, which showed that the unfortunate man had been dead possibly two or three days.

The body was brought to Owensboro and prepared for burial, and the remains will be taken to Central City Sunday morning on the 7:20 o'clock train where the interment will take place.

Peter Rothrock was about 62 years of age, and is survived by his wife and daughter. He has been a transient painter for a number of years, and has done a great amount of work in Daviess and adjoining counties.

RESPONDENT SHE JUMPS INTO WELL AND ENDS LIFE

Hawesville, Ky., Oct. 28.—Miss Janey Wilson, aged thirty, was found drowned in a well, near her home, two miles south of this city, this afternoon. The coroner was notified and an inquest was held and a verdict of death from suicide was returned. The deceased was a daughter of Henry Wilson, of Island Station, and she is survived by several brothers and sisters. She was a niece of the late Judge G. W. Williams, of Owensboro. It is believed she was suffering from melancholia, which caused her to take the rash step. The remains will be buried to-morrow at the family burying ground, near her former home.

"FAITH CURES" SIMPLY "OFFSHOTS OF RELIGION"

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—A vigorous attack on "faith cures" was made at the annual conference of the Unitarian churches to-day. Rev. George R. Douson, of St. Louis, characterized them as "menaces to the country and to national life," and "fanaticisms."

Rev. Howard N. Brown, of Boston, said faith cures were simply "offshoots of religion," and that Christianity was on trial for its life as not before in years.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, pure food champion and chief of the Bureau of Chemistry, Department of Agriculture, was the principal speaker at the afternoon session.

At a Democratic rally in Madison, Wis., Gov. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, was acclaimed the next President of the United States.

Subscribe for The Herald; $1.00 a y'rLEFT HER INFANT ON AN ASH HEAP IN ALLEY

After Trying to Place Two Little Ones in Home for Children.

The Owensboro Messenger of Sunday says:

Mrs. Emma Taylor, the woman who abandoned her four-weeks-old baby boy Friday night, when she left it on an ash heap in an alley at the rear of No. 805 Crittenden street, was arrested by Officer Robbins, on Saturday morning, when she applied to the County Judge, asking him to send her other child, a boy of two years, to the Mary Kendall home, at which place she had attempted to leave both her children on Friday afternoon.

The warrant on which the woman was arrested charged her with deserting her infant child, with a reckless disregard for its life. After being arrested, the woman denied that she had deserted the baby that was found in the alley, but later admitted the charge. She was taken to the county jail. Her examining trial will probably be held Tuesday.

The woman admitted that she had come from Evansville and said that the trustee of that township had given her the money to come to Owensboro. She said that neither she nor the boy of two years had eaten anything from Thursday noon till Saturday morning. When asked why she had abandoned the baby, she said that she was unable to support it, and that she knew that its cries would be heard within a few minutes after she left it in the alley.

The woman showed little signs of any concern over the matter till she was questioned as to whether or not she objected to serving a sentence in the penitentiary; she then started crying. The woman was arrested in Owensboro about two months ago and was fined $20 and costs for immoral conduct.

The two children are now at the Mary Kendall home and Saturday afternoon a young woman, who failed to give her name, but who stated that she was married, asked that she be allowed to care for the two-year-old boy.

Miss Irtle Shacklett, of Paradise, is visiting Mrs. H. F. Kirtley.

Miss Janet Abercrombie went to Drakesboro Friday.

Mrs. —— Perkins, Mrs. Nelson and daughter, Miss Gertrude, of Drakesboro, visited Mrs. James Abercrombie Monday.

Mr. Frank Kirtley, wife and little sons, LeRoy and J. B., visited Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shacklett, of Paradise, Saturday and Sunday.

Our school is progressing nicely with Miss Bun Woods, of Rochester, as teacher.

Quite a crowd of young folks visited Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Duke Sunday and were entertained charmingly with music. All enjoyed it very much. Those present were: Misses Mattie and Ethel Eskridge, Ollie and Corinne Murphy, Ada Murphy, of Rockport, Beatrice Duke and Misses James Hays, of Moorman, Harrison Wright, Andrew Burke.

Miss Agnes Abercrombie went to Drakesboro Saturday.

Mrs. Cai Wright and little son Howard went to Nelson Saturday.

Miss Orena Gilliam went to Drakesboro Saturday.

Coughing at Night

Means loss of sleep which is bad for the children and hard on grown persons. Folic's Honey and Tar Compound stops the cough at once, relieves the tickling and dryness in the throat and heals the inflamed membranes. Contains no opiates and is best for children and delicate persons. Refuse substitutes. For sale by all druggists.

HOW O'REAR IS USING MAILED TO GAIN VOTES

Here is a sample of a letter being mailed to the tobacco growers of the State by Judge O'Rear, with the hope of gaining their vote:

"My Dear Sir: My attitude towards and sympathy for the tobacco growers of Kentucky in the struggle for fair prices since 1906, has brought down upon me powerful opposition.

I have evidence that the Tobacco Trust is taking an active, though unexposed, part in the campaign against me, and an effort is being made by appealing to prejudices and bringing up dead issues, to confuse the situation and obscure the real questions involved.

Messrs. B. J. and L. D. French made a business trip to Owensboro Monday.

A LESSON IN KEEPING THE DOLLAR AT HOME

Ten years ago a farmer put his initials on a dollar bill. The next day he went to the nearest town and spent it with a merchant. Before the year was out he got the dollar bill back. Four times in six years the dollar came back to him for produce, and three times he heard of it in the pockets of his neighbors. The last time he got it back was four years ago. He sent it to a Retail Mail Order House. He has never seen that dollar since, nor never will. That dollar will never pay any more school or road tax for him, will not build or brighten any of the homes of the community. He sent it entirely out of the circle of usefulness to himself and his neighbors.

At a Democratic rally in Madison, Wis., Gov. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, was acclaimed the next President of the United States.

Starts Much Trouble.

If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble, they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. It's the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, chills and debility. 25c. at James

H. Williams.

Very truly yours,

"ED C. O'REAR."

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—